They have assured the world, on behalf of constitutional Nationalism, that there is no German plot in Ireland, and, therefore, that no Sian Feiner can be involved in such a plot. They have rejected with scorn the Government's appeal to all loyal subjects to help it in crushing the plot. Are loyal Nationalists really prepared to identify themselves with this blind and reckless policy? Are they prepared to take the new and heavy repared to take the new and heavy constitution in Ireland Conference imposes on them to-day? Is the Roman Catholic Church in Ireland prepared to take it? A very large summore than 2160,000—has been collected, under the direct auspices of the Roman Catholic church in Ireland Catholic bishops, for the purposes of the campaign against conscription.
